Philia announces partnership with Sup de CO Dakar, Senegal

Geneva, December 20, 2015 - Philia S.A (Philia) is pleased to announce it partners with Sup de CO Dakar business school in Senegal to promote emeritus African students and enhance their chances to pursue quality education. Merit-based scholarships were awarded to eight students for the year 2015/2016. Philia also joined in with Sup de CO Dakar to help bring the first Master in Oil Trading and Supply Chain management in Africa to the foreground. With Philia's support, the Senegalese business school's objective is to offer young African students in-country quality education and training in this specific sector.
